sh (Neil Young)

C
in armor coming,

G C
Sayin' something about a queen
G D
There where peasants singin' and drummers drummin'
C D
And the archer split the tree.
Em F
There was a fanfare blowin' to the sun
C F
That was floating on the breeze.
G D
Look at Mother Nature on the run
F C
In the nineteen seventies
G D
Look at Mother Nature on the run
F C
In the nineteen seventies

[Verse 2]

G C
I was lying in a burned out basement
G C
With a full moon in my eye
G D
I was hoping for replacement
C D
When the sun burst through the sky
Em F
There was a band playing in my head
C F
And I felt like getting high
G D
I was thinking about what a friend had said
F C
I was hoping it was a lie
G D
Thinking about what friend had said
F C
I was hoping it was a lie

[Horn solo] (lasts one verse)

[Verse 3] (same lyrics)

C G C
Well I dreamed I saw the silver spaceship flying
G C
In the yellow haze of the sun
G D
There were children crying and colors flying
C D
All around the chosen one
Em F
All in a dream, all in a dream
C F
The loading had begun
G D
Flying Mother Nature's silver seed
F C
To a new home in the sun 2X
